**Reminders will not be mailed out prior to each rodeo; however, you may contact the rodeo secretary to sign up for an email reminder.****

Reminders:

- All contestants should be ready to compete when their name is called. Since the association has moved to having two rodeos in one day, we must be conscious of the pace of the rodeo.
- Rulebooks are available in the announcers stand. Each contestant should be familiar with the rules of the events in which they compete. The rulebook will be enforced.
- Contestants must be wearing their hat when they cross the plan of the arena. Your hat is part of your western attire and contestants should wear it proudly and make an effort to ensure it stays on during competition.
- Pay out for rodeos is done at the following month's rodeo. This was a decision made by the executive board a few years ago. Checks can be picked up at the rodeo office at the following month's rodeo when you pay your entry fees.
- The association must have a copy of each contestants birth certificate. If you have not provided a copy, please do so at the next rodeo.
- If you would like to volunteer to help in the arena or in the rodeo office, your assistance will be greatly appreciated.
